Join in and Learn About the Official USPS Professional Certification Training Programs Offered at National Postal Forum

Back by popular demand, three official USPS certification programs will be offered again at this year's NPF. A webinar highlighting the benefits of these certifications and what attendees can expect to learn will be offered on Thursday, February 22, 2018 3:00 p.m. EST. Join facilitators from the USPS National Center for Employee Development and officials from the NPF to learn more about curriculum and registration details.

The US Postal Service official certifications available are:

- The Executive Mail Center Manager (EMCM) course teaches the skills needed to manage more effectively, boost productivity and cut costs.
- The Mail Design Professional (MDP) course is centered around effective mail design compatibility and optimizing postage costs through automation.
- The Certified Direct Mail Professional (CDMP) course is designed for the mailing industry professional to develop and strengthen core skills that build and maintain successful direct mail business within this highly-competitive environment.

Learn more about the certification programs by visiting: <https://npf.org/workshops/certification>
