Business Customer Gateway Redesign Release Date

The updates to the Business Customer Gateway, previously scheduled for November 8, will be moved to a later date. We will send an industry alert with the new date as soon as it becomes available.

A guide to the new site is located at <https://postalpro.usps.com/bcg/redesign> and the remaining webinars will still take place as scheduled to familiarize business customers with the new features. Please see the information below to attend.

Thank you for your patience.
