PRC Approves 2021 Price Change for Competitive International Products

The Postal Regulatory Commission (PRC) approved the United States Postal Service price change for Competitive International products to take effect on January 24, 2021.

In the order, the PRC stated that it “approves the proposed price changes and updates the Mail Classification Schedule (MCS) to reflect the new prices.” An overview of the approved average percent price increase by product or category is summarized in the table below.

International Competitive Products

Product name	Average price increase (percent)
Global Express Guaranteed	0.9
Priority Mail Express International	3.6
Priority Mail International	5.1
International Priority Airmail	74.1
International Surface Air Lift	32.6
Airmail M-Bags	5.0
First-Class Package International Service	4.8

International Ancillary Services and Special Services

Product name	Average price increase (percent)
International Ancillary Services	3.4

The final order approving the competitive International Product price increase can be found here:
