Officer Announcement - Vice President, Processing Operations, Western Region - Todd Hawkins

Postmaster General Louis DeJoy has announced the appointment of Todd S. Hawkins to the position of Vice President, Processing Operations, Western Region, effective immediately. He will report directly to the Chief Processing and Distribution Officer and Executive Vice President Isaac Cronkhite.

Todd has been acting in the role since April, overseeing over 140 processing facilities, a workforce of more than 56,000 employees, and holding responsibility of processing and maintenance operations across the Western Region. He has demonstrated a commitment to customers and employees, has a proven track record of developing leaders, and has led strong results in support of the Delivering for America plan.
