

USPS Ship

The Next Generation Package Platform

Migrating & Onboarding to USPS Ship

May 22, 2024 | June 19, 2024

Discussion Topics

- Why USPS Ship
- Migrating Steps
 - Best practices and tips
- Onboarding Steps
 - Best practices and tips

The Next Generation Package Platform: USPS Ship

Working Towards Streamlined Enrollment

Simple onboarding to enroll in USPS Ship through the Customer Onboarding Portal (COP)

Advanced Pricing Logic

Maximizes number of packages priced and results in fewer rejected packages and corrections files

Postage Adjustments

Automated postage adjustments compares manifested attributes to validate postage

Target date February 2025

Individual Package Postage

Packages priced timely and accurately using weight, dimensions, entry, packaging captured from Mail Processing Equipment

End to End Visibility

Access your daily transactions and assessment details through online reports

Customizable Data Feeds

Subscribe to and tailor data feeds for package level details, transaction details, and more

Migrating Process

eVS shippers migrating to USPS Ship

- Contact Sales Rep to start your migration process
- USPS Pilot
 - Enroll in USPS Ship Pilot at least 1 month prior to joining USPS Ship Live
 - eVS status will remain “Live” while enrolled in USPS Ship Pilot
 - Enroll in USPS Ship Reports, USPS Ship Disputes and Refund Requests, USPS Ship Account Management, and IV-MTR via BCG
 - Set up your IV-MTR data feeds
 - Make sure your NSA is linked to USPS Ship in Panorama
 - Ensure your account management BSA has BSA permissions in your EPS account
- Going from Pilot to Live
 - Shippers migrating from eVS must Go Live on the 1st of the month
 - Use the USPS_Ship@usps.gov email to let us know (please give us at least 5 business days notice)
 - eVS status will become “Parallel” when enrolled in USPS Ship Live

PostalPro Ship Guides: USPS Ship | PostalPro

The screenshot shows the USPS Ship page on the PostalPro website. The page features the USPS and PostalPro logos at the top, a search bar, and a navigation menu with categories like Mailing and Shipping, Promotions & Incentives, Industry Forum, Operations, Certifications, Resources, and Contact. The main content area is titled "USPS Ship" and includes a sub-header "This new platform provides upgrades to reporting, pricing and visibility as packages move through the mail stream." Below this, there are two bullet points for guides: "For Guide to USPS Ship for eVS Shippers - Click here" and "For Guide to USPS Ship for New Shippers - Click here". The page also mentions bi-weekly webinars and lists upcoming webinars for April 24 and May 8. A "Quick Links" sidebar on the right contains links to "eVS/USPS Ship Comparison Fact Sheet", "Setting up IV-MTR@ USPS Ship Domestic Outbound data feeds", "USPS Ship Tech Sheet", "Pub 199", "IV-MTR EPS/PPC data feed guide", "Informed Visibility PPC Data Delegation Form", and "RBC Data Dictionary".

What to Expect While in USPS Pilot

Things to Know

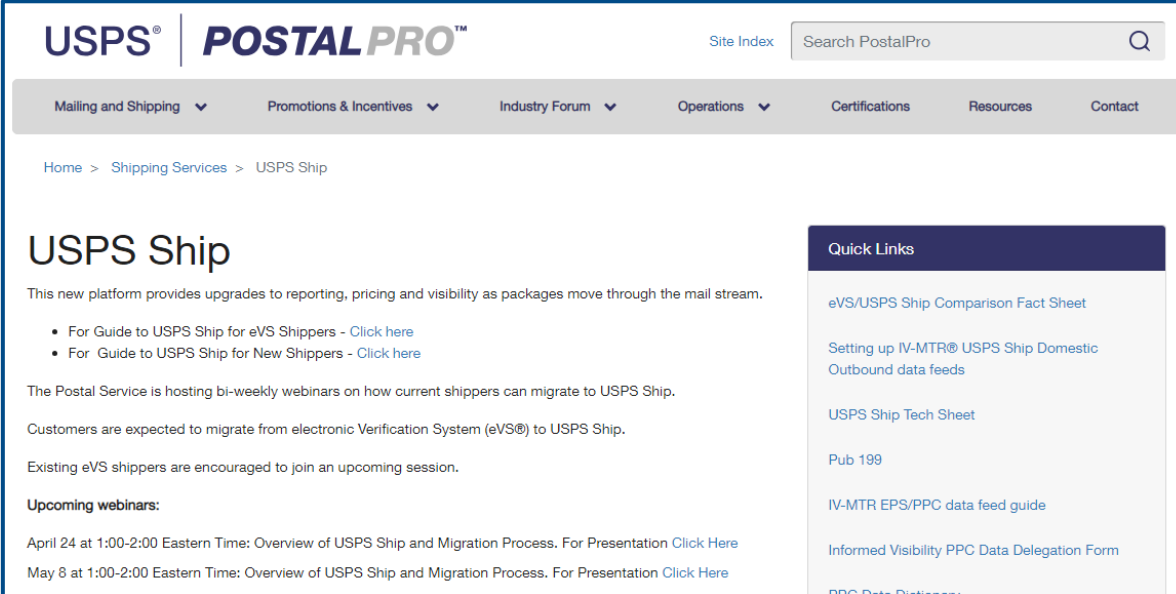

- Your live files are in eVS and in USPS Ship Pilot
 - Payment data is not in USPS Ship Pilot
- USPS Ship is not the same as eVS – expect to see some differences
 - USPS Ship has thresholds
 - Census data
 - Etc.

Things to do to Prepare for Enrolling in Live USPS Ship

- Review and compare your pilot data feeds and eVS data feed
- Review and compare your pilot reports and eVS reports

If you have questions about your reports and data feeds, please reach out to USPS_Ship@usps.gov

PostalPro Ship Guides: USPS Ship | PostalPro

The screenshot shows the USPS Ship page on the PostalPro website. The page features the USPS and PostalPro logos at the top, a search bar, and a navigation menu with categories like Mailing and Shipping, Promotions & Incentives, Industry Forum, Operations, Certifications, Resources, and Contact. The main content area is titled "USPS Ship" and includes a sub-header "This new platform provides upgrades to reporting, pricing and visibility as packages move through the mail stream." Below this, there are two bullet points: "For Guide to USPS Ship for eVS Shippers - Click here" and "For Guide to USPS Ship for New Shippers - Click here". The page also mentions bi-weekly webinars and provides links for upcoming sessions on April 24 and May 8. A "Quick Links" sidebar on the right contains links to various resources such as "eVS/USPS Ship Comparison Fact Sheet", "Setting up IV-MTR® USPS Ship Domestic Outbound data feeds", "USPS Ship Tech Sheet", "Pub 199", "IV-MTR EPS/PPC data feed guide", "Informed Visibility PPC Data Delegation Form", and "RBC Data Dictionary".

Onboarding Process for USPS Ship

New Shippers

- If you want to use API
 - Access Customer Onboarding Portal (COP) via Business Customer Gateway (BCG)
 - You will automatically be enrolled in returns
 - Contact Sales Rep/TIS to complete the process
- If you want to use your own software
 - Contact your Sales Rep/TIS to complete the process
- If you have more than one MID
 - Contact your Sales Rep/TIS to complete the process

PostalPro Ship Guides: USPS Ship | PostalPro

The screenshot shows the USPS Ship page on the PostalPro website. The page features the USPS and PostalPro logos at the top, a search bar, and a navigation menu with categories like Mailing and Shipping, Promotions & Incentives, Industry Forum, Operations, Certifications, Resources, and Contact. The main content area is titled 'USPS Ship' and includes a description of the platform, a list of links for guides, information about bi-weekly webinars, and upcoming webinar dates. A 'Quick Links' sidebar on the right contains links to various resources such as comparison fact sheets, data feeds, and tech sheets.

Before starting the process to enroll in USPS Ship, make sure you have your CRID and make your technical representative available to set up your data feeds and identify who you want to be trained on the USPS Ship reports.

Questions

usps_ship@usps.gov